I Ramesh Kumar Potla, under Section 6(1) of RTI Act 2005, hereby apply for certain information explained in detail in heading marked "RTI Request Description"

A. Forward

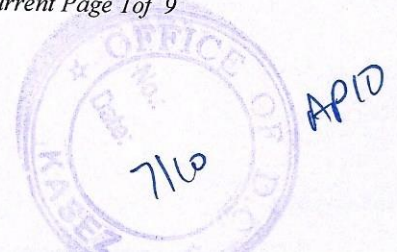

Sir, I expressly state that I do not wish to seek monetary or administrative penalties on you.

It is unfortunate that current structure of penalties of RTI has reduced the RTI process to a contest of legal intellect between a citizen and CPIO of a Public Authority, whereby each try to outwit each other.

This defeats the purpose of RTI act.

Respected Sir, CPIO are supposed to help Citizens of country to seek the information required by them, they are supposed to go beyond the "Administrative convenience" of the department and perform the "quasi-judicial" role, under the RTI Act 2005, with due diligence, following the principles of natural justice and respecting the RTI Act in letter and spirit.

I would request you to proactively assist me in providing information as specified under Section 5 (3) of RTI act.

B. Kindly Provide Acknowledgement and Registration number

M. Conclusion

Respected Sir, since It is a crucial issue I have tried to make a conscientious RTI request and have tried to the best of my ability to make the request as clear as possible to help you take a informed and conscientious decision.

I apologize for mistakes if any in my language, lengthy explanations, and references to RTI act which may take away your precious time.

However this has been done to save time later by avoiding to drag the matter to First Appeal and Second Appeal at CIC, which frustrates RTI act and also is a burden on existing already overloaded judicial resources.

I again repeat that I do not wish to seek monetary or administrative penalties on you or contest you before First Appellate Authority and before CIC.

I rather most humbly and respectfully request you not to reject my request but examine its merits conscientiously and help me and proactively assist me in providing information as specified under Section 5 (3) of RTI act as a Quasi Judicial Authority and go beyond the "Administrative convenience" of your office and perform the "quasi-judicial" role, under the RTI Act 2005, with due diligence, following the principles of natural justice and respecting the RTI Act in letter and spirit.

Furthermore, should you have any questions concerning this request, please contact me at below mentioned contact details
